

WITH OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

We enjoyed a letter this week from Augie Esola, somewhere out in the Pacific with his infantry outfit, who had just received his first Sierra Sun since landing. He really enjoyed the home town news. He said that Jimmy Thomas had called on him and it was the first time they had seen each other since leaving the states. Augie had just been to the show and witnessed Thank Your Luck Stars. "I see where you are having some very nice pictures there, also. Wish that I was there to enjoy them like the good old days," he wrote.

Lyle Smith, former electric shop operator at Truckee and at Tahoe City, who went into the SeaBees in January, but who was not called for duty until last month, in a short but intensive training at Farragut, Idaho, and expects to waste no time getting into action as a ship repair man.

Pfc. Al Ring arrived in Truckee from Camp Shelby, Mississippi on Sunday for a short furlough. He and Mrs. Ring will spend some time visiting his family at Auburn. His sister-in-law, Miss Azad Joseph left Monday for New York where she enters basic training in the WAVES.

Tom Howard is reported to be returning home with a medical discharge from the SeaBees after nearly eight months, most of them spent in a hospital at Oceanside.

Marine Pvt. Glenn Coffey has finished his basic training and has been ordered to mess hall duty for the next thirty days. A radical change from an A-1 mechanic, we'd say.

Sgt. Fosten Wilson continues to write from his base in Ireland and tells of visiting places of interest. "Not the least of these are the castles the lords can keep up no longer. The stone steps, more than 200 years old, are often worn down several inches, making one realize a lot of shoe leather has gone over them."

Tech. Sgt. James L. Cook, veteran of Attu, Kiska and seven beach landings in the Marshall Islands was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wray en route from his home at Palmer, Nebraska, to his base. Cook, who was stationed in Truckee at the outbreak of the war was on furlough because of his father's illness.

Myron Immer is not in the army as first reported but in the navy and is now stationed in Rhode Island where he is attending a technical school. He, like other Californians, says the east does not compare with the west.

LADY IN THE DARK HERE SUN., MONDAY

Truckee, Tahoe and Donner theater goers are in for a rare treat this week when Lady in the Dark, starring Ginger Rogers and Ray Milland will be shown at the Donner Theater. In order that everyone may see this picture of the year, said to have cost well over $4,000,000 to produce, Manager Verne Shattuck said the show will be operated both Sunday, May 7 and Monday, May 8.

ROTARY CLUB SEES PRIZE FIGHT FILMS

William Englehart provided the program at the meeting of the Rotary Club Monday night when he exhibited motion pictures of prize fights. Dee Bowen presided and was program chairman. Visiting Rotarians were John W. Nash and M. J. Boney both of Loyalton and Alex Robertson of Truckee was an additional guest.

TWO INJURED WHEN CAR IS WRECKED

Mrs. Tom Howard, former Truckee resident, is in a Reno hospital with both knees fractured, following an automobile accident in that city last Friday evening, involving Mrs. Howard's car. Jesse Gilman, welder for the Southern Pacific here, also received a fractured ankle and possible head injuries. He was taken to the company's hospital in San Francisco.

The accident occurred, Mrs. Howard said, when she momentarily turned her head to speak to Gilman and the car crashed into an obstruction.

HONEYBUNCH CAFE AT TAHOE OPENED

TAHOE CITY, May 4.—Patrons of the Honeybunch Cafe in the Darlin Building will be pleased to learn that that popular establishment opened for the summer season May 1.

Mrs. Rose Boylides, the manager, said she will be assisted this summer by Kathrine Little, who has worked in a number Tahoe cafes during the past several years. From indications of the first few days, Mrs. Boylides said, a good summer's business is expected.

Brother Guest—

Mr. and Mrs. James Garibaldi will have John Garibaldi of San Francisco as their guest this month.

Air Cadet Robert Tamblin, brother of Mrs. Verne Shattuck has reported for duty at Kirtland Field, New Mexico, an advanced bombardier training school. Upon completion of the difficult course he will be a flying officer with a rating of aerial bombardier.

Sgt. Karl Kielhofer arrived home on furlough to visit his friends and family. Karl is stationed at Camp Hale, Colorado. He looks very fit, we add.

TWO WOMEN CATCH SAME FISH WHILE ANGLING AT BOCA

The old saying of swallowing hook, line and sinker, went double for a two and a half pound rainbow at Boca on the opening day. Mrs. Robert Luck and Mrs. Clarence Osburn threw in their respective baits and after a light struggle pulled out the same fish which proved too greedy for its well being, having swallowed both baits.

Both women reported a good catch, while men in the same vicinity were not so enthusiastic.

Kenneth Immer of Auburn who was a guest of Mrs. Luck on the opening day, caught a two and a half pounder and a smaller rainbow at Boca.

The above message was received here yesterday by the Truckee Office of Price Administration from V. J. Monteverda, district rationing executive and substantiates previous reports that all meats, with the exceptions of those listed above would be removed from the rationing list and kept off as long as possible.

Slow Start Marks Opening Of Fish Season In Area

Weather Blamed For Lack Of Limit Catches In District

Spotty luck marked the opening of the fishing season in this district Monday. Cold weather, causing a late arrival of spring, and water conditions were blamed for the lack of the usual Grade A angling. Experts declare that in a week or so, as the season advances, fishing will improve.

Scores of fishermen braved the fog at Boca reservoir, but not many had the usual opening day luck and many returned empty handed.

Others invaded smaller streams and there better luck was encountered. L. A. Greene was one of the Truckee sportsmen who returned with a limit from Martis creek. They were small trout. Few limits were taken from the larger streams including the Truckee River, Little Truckee and Prospector.

Those in the know contend that the weather has been too cold and the streams in poor condition for the opening, but believe that fishing will improve vastly as the season advances.

Heavy plantings last fall give assurance that streams and lakes are well stocked and just as soon as weather and water improve, there will be ample sport.

Reports from Tahoe gave another story. Several limits were caught, but at that many reported the season will improve as it advances. Most of the trout caught at Tahoe were from boats.

Other sections of the state, press reports indicate, had the same bad start that was experienced here and like Truckee, they all hold that better results will be obtained within two or three weeks.

by WALTER M. BARRETT

A filled grammar school auditorium greeted the high school students who presented their annual play The Sap by William Grew. The production was unusually well carried out and the setting for the amusing story was artistically arranged and realistic in effect. Each player showed study and interest in his or her part and the carefully detailed efforts of the directors, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Briles, made the evening a big success. Briles has had experience with the Pasadena Players and direction of a number of plays. He was presented with a gift in appreciation by George Kamp in behalf of the young cast.

Well, folks, the fishing season did not get off to its usual fine start this year, due, experts declare, to the condition of the weather and water. We can only hope that they are right in their prediction that later in the season fishing will improve. We know there are lots of trout in the local streams—more than for many seasons past—so its very likely that the experts are right and we have only to await better weather before the old sport come into its own.

PRISONER BEATEN IN LOCAL JAIL AS MANY ARRESTED

Eight transient workers for a local construction company were booked at the Truckee jail Tuesday to swell the total of alleged violators of the week, according to Constable N. F. Dolley, who made the arrests.

Wednesday morning when Dolley went to the jail to check his charges, he found Antonio Bianco, 55, badly beaten about the head, the result, he said of a free-for all in the jail. The injured man was taken to the county hospital and several of the other occupants were given floaters from the county. One man, William Bond, 32, was held and taken to the county jail for investigation on a draft evasion charge. Others in the jail when Bianco was beaten were Joseph Taylor, 39, Albert E. Bamford, 42, and Clifford Williams, 49.

Sheriff C. J. Tobiasen has promised to send a special deputy to Truckee to assist Dolley on occasions with the drunks and also agreed to fix up the local jail.

Tahoe Briets

Mrs. Lee Garner is occupying the family home in town for the season. Lee still being employed in Nevada. Sherwood Prusso Sunday brought a small boat from Chris Nielsen just in time to try it on Boca reservoir. With Rex Tollefson he was on hand early Monday, only to find the fog so thick you could cut it with a knife. One man went around declaring he couldn't find the shore. They returned to Tahoe around 1 P.M. and reported up to that time only one small fish had been hooked.

At this writing no big fish have been taken at Tahoe, friend husband getting two small ones totalling four pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Geier, formerly of Meeks Bay and more recently of Oakland, have purchased the Dixie cabin in Tahoe Park where they recently spent a week. They plan on spending the summer at Tahoe.

Mrs. Al Henry, Jr., and small son are enjoying a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wheat at Tahoe City, while Al goes into training for Uncle Sam's air force.

The lake level on Monday stood at 6226.97 with only 22 CSF of water leaving the gates. Snow on the ground in town measured eight inches and low temperature for the week was 30 degrees. At this writing the weather is beautiful.

Mrs. Bessie Dockham of the Tahoe Fish Hatchery had a bad time with a wisdom tooth last week which had to be pulled by a Reno specialist.

Jimmie Swanson pedaled home on his bike Monday from the Tallac Hatchery where he is employed, to spend the day with his family.

Committee Asks State Agencies To Protect Lake

Unanimous Opinion Favors State Control For Donner

The ultimate protection of the recreation and scenic beauties of Donner Lake moved a step nearer last week at a hearing held in the capital building at Sacramento before a joint interim legislative committee on water problems.

There appeared a unanimity of opinion that nothing should be permitted to destroy the beauties of Donner Lake.

The Truckee Chamber of Commerce was represented by C. Edmunds who summarized for the committee the steps that had already been taken and pointed out the destruction that might follow a continued lowering of the lake level.

Edmunds declared that the people of the Truckee-Donner area considered Donner Lake one of their greatest assets and that the destruction of the scenic values would greatly effect the economic values of the region.

The decision revolved around the ownership of the lake bottom, which in turn would determine the ownership of the waters. It was brought out that apparently the Donner Lake Company owned the land surrounding the lake and assumed the ownership of the lake and in turn had sold the lake and the land thereunder to the Truckee-Carson Irrigation District and the Sierra Pacific Power Company.

It was brought out that the opinion given out by the state division of water resources last November relative to the land under the lake being owned by the Donner Lake Company had not been passed upon by the attorney for that department but was the expression of one of its engineers. The attorney for the department said he could not concur in that opinion until he looked the matter up more thoroughly.

State Senator J. L. Seawell stated that in his opinion the water of Donner belongs to the state and expressed the hope that the proper authorities would see to it that the people's interests are fully protected.

A representative of the Attorney General's office read a number of decisions in interpreting what is considered a navigable lake and it appeared that Donner comes well within the meaning of a navigable body of water. He told the committee that he did not believe any further laws were necessary to strengthen the state's claim to the lake.

Senator Fletcher, a member of the committee remarked that he always enjoyed the beauties of Donner Lake in his trips through this region but that on a recent trip the tears had come to his eyes when he saw the destruction caused by drawing off of the water.

E. M. Fennon, manager of the Sacramento Valley District of the State Chamber of Commerce outlined the interest that body had in the preservation of Donner and Independence Lakes and brought out that each lake would have to be considered on its individual merits and circumstances.

Chairman Senator B. S. Crittenden stated that since the state division of lands had notified the Donner Lake Company, the Truckee-Carson Irrigation District and the Sierra Pacific Power Company to cease all further diversion of the water of the lake, he hoped they would take all legal steps necessary to maintain the State's claim to ownership and prevent future despoliation to the scenic value of Donner. He further expressed the hope that the Attorney General's office would take whatever steps are necessary to protect the people's interests.

Crittenden said it was up to the people of this district to report any attempt made to damage the scenic or recreational assets of Donner to proper authorities.

Edmunds also explained to the committee the destruction of fish life in the Truckee river by the extreme low water caused by closing the gates at Lake Tahoe in inopportune times. Recently, he said, this had occurred when the fish had already started to spawn and the beds were left exposed to freezing weather for several days and nights.

HISTORY RECALLED AS NEW HOME FOR VILLAGE STORE MADE READY FOR OPENING

TAHOE CITY, May 4.—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson who recently announced the purchases of the Otto Darlin building on North Front and Grove Streets in Tahoe City, plan to reopen their Village Store there the first part of May. Their son, Jack Starrett, will be associated with them and assist Anderson in the management.

Anderson, known to his intimates as Red, has the good wishes of his many friends in the neighborhood for success in his new enterprise. He came to Tahoe in 1926 from Tarkio, Montana, where he operated a store and postoffice. He assisted in building the first grocery store of the pioneer grocer, C. W. Atherton, who recently passed away at his Fallon home. He was employed by the old Bliss company at its early day site on the lakeshore, later known as the Tahoe Mercantile Company. The old buildings and post office were destroyed by fire seven years ago and were not rebuilt. Then followed employment at the new Tahoe Mercantile Company, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Weller Atherton, across from Community Center on the highway, after which he bought out the stock of Carl Bechdel, Jr., in the present Village Store.

Mrs. Rose Boyarides for several years past has operated a cafe in the Darlin building and a smaller store in the rear has been unoccupied.
A four room modern apartment over the store will be used by the family with several unfinished rooms on the second floor to be completed later.

Tahoe Schools

Pupils of the Tahoe Lake School wound up the observance of Public Schools week by receiving small pox vaccinations. Seventeen received the treatment including three pre-school children.

Robert Hursey of Tall Pines missed several days of school last week when he was confined to his bed with a bad case of "sniffles."

Mrs. Myrtle Gallinger announced this week that the 15 pupils of the grammar school purchased a total of $58.60 worth of war stamps during the month of April.

Parents and children attending the Public Schools Week program sponsored by the children in their classroom last Thursday were pleasantly entertained by the youngsters who conducted the meeting in proper adult manner, Robert Dockham wielding the gavel. Mrs. Anne Anderson was guest speaker, for the afternoon reading from pages of letters from her daughter, Kathleen, now with a Red Cross Service unit in India.
Motion pictures concluded the entertainment, with Stanley Martin operating the machine.

Dear Tahoeites:

Sunday again and an important one in this neck of the woods, for local sportsmen are poised tonight, equipment in tip-top shape, ready for the opening of the fishing season here at the crack of dawn tomorrow morning! Hopes for good luck in the lake runs high, although some old timers declare they have seen few large fish swimming about the local wharfs in recent days, the usual indication of a season of plenty. A late spring with too much snow and the water too cold is given as the reason.

Discharge of water from the Tahoe gates is still low and only minimum success is anticipated in the Truckee river between Tahoe and Truckee.

The lakes that dot the mountain back country around Tahoe are also open tomorrow, but it is reported that most of them will be covered with several feet of ice at this early date. Caretakers in general believe that the spring this year is approximately three weeks late.

Beautiful sunny weather, with a breath of real summer in its warmth arrived Saturday. With a week or two of this kind of sunshine, the ground would soon be showing thru.

Had several interesting letters in the mail bag this week, one from our old friend, Fred Hughes. First off he apologizes for not having answered sooner, but since returning to Camp Hale, he has spent every spare moment with his mother and other members of his family who, if I remember correctly, live at Denver. Since he is expecting a furlough, he has sacrificed a weekend pass to catch up with neglected correspondence, for which we are duly grateful. Fred, like so many of you boys, expresses deep satisfaction in being able to keep up with the Truckee-Tahoe news, through the Sierra Sun, which are shared with Karl Kielhof, Bud Zorich and other Truckee boys. He assures me that much of their spare time is spent in contemplating and discussing old friends and experiences in their old stamping grounds.

At the same camp in Colorado we hear that last week Billy Bechdolt of Tahoe won his corporal's stripes, so its congratulations to Bill from us Tahoeites at home.

Pete Vanni, who spent most of his life in the Tahoe region, and who entered the infantry training some five months ago writes from Camp Fannin, Texas, to son Jimmie and Mrs. Anderson, that he is now whiling away a number of weeks in the post hospital as the result of a fracture to his left foot. It strikes him as really funny that after all the tough falls he suffered for years on skis, that he had to get a fractured foot while out hiking! But Pete declares that his 17 weeks basic training isn't always as simple as it sounds and a lot of it is rugged. He doesn't mind the hospital a bit, but it will throw him back on his anticipated ten-day furlough, as he will have to remain for an additional ten weeks to make up for lost training. His company is now out for two

Mrs. Henry Soll is enjoying a visit in the valley, having left Tahoe last Tuesday. She spent some time with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerkin at their ranch at Fair Oaks and also visited Mrs. Fanger and Minnie Pomin in Sacramento. The last link of Highway 89 around Emerald Bay was reported Sunday to weeks bivouac without him. He likes the army very much but says with emphasis that as far as he is concerned "they can give Texas back to the Indians! With mud up to your knees, the sand blows into your eyes at the same time.

Came a real pleasant surprise from our old friends, Rie and Joe Henry, who wrote that the Henry Garage in Tahoe will be open for business this summer once more, as usual. They are planning upon returning within a few weeks, Joe already having been granted a leave of absence from his boss and Rie planning to tag right along, leave or no leave! After the long steady months of war work, the Henrys have put in with little or no social life, no vacations, coming back to Tahoe will surely seem like entering the promised land. Rie said she believed Al, Jr., must be on his way to a Texas airbase to start his aviation training, according to a letter from the Monterey induction center, and so the Sierra Sun will soon be adding another name to its ever growing list when the new address comes through.

Dick Carnell a week ago ran into more bad luck when he dashed around the corner of the barracks at Camp Gruber, Okla., to make the evening show and ran smack-dab into a projecting 2 x 4 which was being used to hold up a clothes line. The result was a deep gash an inch long which cut to the bone just above one eye. He was unconscious for half an hour and an ambulance was called to take him to the hospital where the wound was treated. He is recovering satisfactorily.

WAVE Edna Wheat is now a resident of the navy air station at Norman, Okla., just about 250 miles from her ex-neighbor, Dick Carnell. Edna was a member of a party of five WAVES who made the trip from Bronx, New York to Oklahoma in their own private compartment. They had a grand time and she thinks Oklahoma is not bad at all. She expects to drive a station wagon jeep at first on her new job.

Latest word from Doug Smith, indicates he has lost 15 pounds at his new job with Uncle Sam, but then, he had plenty to begin with and can easily spare it. He appeared quite pleased with his present assignment, on the rifle range.

The Norman Mayfields have not heard for some time from their nephew, Sgt. Gordon Spitsen, chief engineer on a coast guard patrol boat, operating out of San Pedro.

It took Sherwood Prusso, our house guest to remind us the other day that the youthful Major Allen Martini whose world famed bomber, the Dry Martini, is making military history over enemy skies, spent several summers at Tahoe while the Everett Prussos operated Forest Inn on Ward Creek. Allen, it is remembered, even washed dishes in the kitchen at Forest Inn many times for his dad was perhaps the most popular chef ever to toss the vitamins for the Tahoe patrons.

Guests who dropped in today included Mr. and Mrs. Nels Rafald of Kings Beach, Art Sather of Auburn and a party of friends; Rex Tollefson and Jake Obexer, up for the day from Lincoln. The Obexers are awaiting word of their son, Ensign Herbert, last heard from in Florida, who has been assigned to a new base.

The end of the page rushes up at me, so I must wind up for another week. May divine guidance bring you all safely through. Every good wish from the folks at home, along with good luck and good cheer and may God be with you always.

As ever, SWANEE.

to open to traffic. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nielsen of Reno made a trip to their Tahoe Park home Sunday. Nielsen extinguished a fire he found burning in the vicinity of Tahoe Lodge near the highway believed caused by the careless tossing away of a match or cigarette. They reported having entertained Colonel and Mrs. T. H. Kruttschnitt of Hillsboro and Tonopah last Sunday at their Reno home. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Brodehl last week enjoyed a weekend at their Lodi ranch. They were surprised upon arriving to find their daughter and son visited in Tahoe Sunday from Reno.

and children of Vallejo awaiting them Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pomin and family are up for the fishing season, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pomin at Tahoe City. Mr. and Mrs. George Collins of San Francisco observed their seventh wedding anniversary last Wednesday, her mother Stella Watson telephoning felicitations.

Tahoeites will welcome the arrival of May 15 when delivery of Sunday mail for the summer will resume. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Schumacher and son visited in Tahoe Sunday from Reno.

LOCAL LIONS HAVE FUN IN GRASS VALLEY

GRASS VALLEY, May 4.—Grass Valley Lions Club members held one of their notable meetings of the year Thursday night when 19 members of the Truckee Lions Club together with a number of distinguished guests gathered for a dinner meeting of entertainment, fun and a sound picture program.

The Truckeeites wearing deputy sheriff badges and accompanied by Sheriff C. J. Toblissen and District Attorney Ward Sheldon, read the charges of purloining the equipment and accoutrements of the Truckee Lions Club and asked for the plea of the local Lions.

The strong in numbers and the strongwilled Truckee delegation recovered their possessions.

Previous to the meeting the visitors were entertained at the home of Robert T. Ingram of the Grass Valley club at his home. John Flagg of Rainbow Tavern and Art Couillard of Donner Summit Lodge were among the guests.
